ROUND DOZEN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. STACY WILHITE

The Round Dozen Club was entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Stacy Wilhite at her home on E. Spring St. Bridge was played at four tables. Two attractive prizes were given, the highest score prize, and the guest prize. Following the game a most delicious salad course was served. Besides Club members the guests present were: Mesdames W. A. Howard, Minnie Barbour, Rutledge Smith, A. G. Maxwell, George Halls, John Hester, Q. M. Smith, Walter McClain, Algood Carlen, Misses Marie White and Will Alcorn.

A SURPRISE PICNIC

A surprise picnic was given at the home of Elder and Mrs. Chas. Talley, on Friday afternoon by the members of the Christian church. The occasion was to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Talley's wedding day.

A hundred guests enjoyed the tempting supper which was served in picnic fashion on the lawn. In a very appropriate way Mrs. W. M. Shanks presented to the host and hostess, a chest of silver, given by the ladies of the church and a few additional friends. Many other gifts were received by them on this day.

MRS. BARBOUR ENTERTAINS THE FIFTH GRADE

Mrs. Minnie Barbour was hostess on Friday afternoon of a party given to the children of the fifth grade, who were fortunate enough to pass in every subject during the school year. During the afternoon many amusing games were played. An ice course was served by Mrs. Barbour.

MR. AND MRS. Q. M. SMITH ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Q. M. Smith entertained in a very charming manner on Thursday evening to compliment the faculty and senior class of T. P. I. The house for this lovely party was decorated very effectively. The plans for entertaining were enjoyable, one being progressive conversation. Later an ice course was served. Thirty guests enjoyed Mr. and Mrs. Smith's hospitality.

MISS REAGAN AND BULLOCK HONOREES OF PARTY

Miss Nell Gilliland gave a party on Friday evening in honor of Misses Rebecca Reagan and Gladys Bullock. Mrs. Otto Grimsley, Miss Mary Lou Gilliland and Mrs. James Quarles assisted the hostess in entertaining and serving. The guest list was composed of the senior class of the city school, of which the honorees were members.

COOKEVILLE MUSIC CLUB

An interesting meeting of the Cookeville Music Club was held with Mrs. Herbert Carlen on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Carlen presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. Barnes. The constitution and by-laws of the club were read by the secretary, Miss Stanton and passed upon for publication and other business was transacted.

Mrs. Clarence Wilson and Miss Alice Keith Ford, new members were welcomed into the club and Mrs. Thomas A. Early was elected to membership. Other names whose application blanks have not been received by membership committee will be acted upon later.

The musical queries given out by the Director of Music, Mr. Richmond, were handed in with answers, and an interesting talk was given by Mr. Richmond on the musical subjects given.

The next meeting on the second Wednesday afternoon in June will be held with Mr. Allison Enzor, and Mrs. Q. M. Smith will discuss MacDowell's Eroica and the Eroica in Music, followed by an article by Mrs. A. G. Maxwell on Beethoven's use of the Eroica.

WHOOPIING COUGH

This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paregoric, codeine or other opiate is given, as easily cured by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Most people believe that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.—Advt.

JAMES SELBY

On last Thursday, May 19th, Mr. James Selby died at the home of his son, Rev. W. N. Selby and was buried on Saturday, near his former home in Board Valley.

Mr. Selby was born Sept. 19, 1847 and had reached the advanced age of 74 years. He was married 54 years ago, and reared a family of six children, five of whom survive him. He was a member of the Baptist church, and was a good, Christian gentleman, and will be greatly missed by his family. For the past few years he had made his home with his sons and daughters at their several homes, and had been in Cookeville at the home of his son about nine weeks when the end came. The funeral and burial services were attended by a large number of friends and relatives.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Virgil Mackie was the victim of a painful accident while working at the Isbell-Piland Mill a day or two ago. He was turning pick handles at a lathe when the handle he was working on in some way caught in the machinery and struck him a violent blow across the stomach. The blow was not so painful at first, but in a little while he began to suffer and was sent home where medical aid was summoned, and it was at first thought he might be seriously injured internally. He is said to be improving now, but is still confined to his bed, but his physicians do not believe the injury will prove to be a very serious one.

John Hester of Nashville was in Cookeville one day the first of the week.

Rev. A. P. Walker spent Monday in Nashville.
